Year 6 bake sale questions

Dear Parents / Carers,

On Thursday 30th June, there will be a bake sale in the park to raise money for the Year 6 leavers' hoodies.

Below are some answers to questions about the day:

How can I pay?

Please pay £2 for your child's hoody. There are two ways to pay:

1. You can pay on the Friends of Columbia Just Giving page
<https://www.justgiving.com/campaign/FriendsofColumbiaYear6hoodies22>
If you're able to pay more, Friends of Columbia also welcome donations to cover the cost of the hoodies.
2. You can give £2 in cash. You could bring this to the park on Thursday or your child could bring this into school on the day.

Will my child be selling the cakes/samosas at the bake sale?

No, the cakes/samosas will be sold by parent volunteers.

When should I pick my child up from school on Thursday?

Please pick your child up at the normal time, or they can go home alone (if they have permission). They will not be supervised by staff during the bake sale.

I'm a parent/carer and I would like to volunteer to sell the cakes and samosas at the bake sale. Is it too late?

Please let Amy or the office know you would like to help- we would love to have you!

I'm a parent/carer who is volunteering at the bake sale. what should I do on the day?

Please arrive at the park at 3:00. You will set up the tables and then sell the cakes/samosas. Olly will meet you at 3:00 to help you set up.

If you have any more questions, do come and speak to me.

With best wishes,
Amy Scott (Upper Key Stage 2 Phase Leader)
